ALIENS SHOULD GO SLOW.

Because they were offered a handsome reward for taking some Austrians over the line, two Lethbridge chauffeurs fell to the temptation and as result they are now under arrest charged with treason. The Austrians who tried to escape were also caught and arrested.

This surely should be a lesson to others. It was only last week here in Redcliff that a German, after making threats to turn marks to some of our citizens and after receiving a summons to appear in court, made good his escape, and there are good reasons to believe he was assisted in his get-away by some of his friends who are still in town. This is a serious matter. At the present time when so many European countries are at war, and when Canada is at war because Britain is at war, those living in this country who sympathize with the empire's enemies, should be very careful what they do and say. So long as they mind their own business and do not give expression to their feelings in a manner to arouse those about them, they are just as safe here as they would be in Berlin or Vienna, and will be extended the same British justice as they would in times of peace. Just now when the patriotism and loyalty of the people of this country together with their hatred for the murderous, military monarch who was the cause of the war is turned up to the highest pitch, there is cause for extra precaution among aliens in this country. If they so forget themselves as to start arguments over the war and assist aliens to get out of the country they must put up with the consequences. They are not doing this in ignorance. They know full well when they are doing it they are doing wrong.

HARD TO PLEASE EVERYBODY.

It is pretty hard to please everybody. While the recent rains have been a source of great pleasure to the farmers and have brought along the crops wonderfully there are those in town who are finding them cause for complaint. As the town has no system of sewerage or drainage those whose lots are low are being flooded out. Naturally this is the source of great annoyance and many are the complaints we have heard in the last few days against the council and the town engineer for not doing something to at least try and remedy the situation. One merchant in town tells us that he has had several hundreds of dollars worth of goods spoiled by water coming into his cellar from adjoining lots. Just who is to blame for this, or at least who is to remedy it, is hard to say. The same answer which was given to another merchant by Councillor Robertson when that citizen complained of the location of the pound, might apply to this case. Regarding the pound Councillor Robertson said in effect the pound was there first, nobody asked you to move up beside it. If the council is all of the same opinion they might in case say, "the low lot" was there when you built and nobody asked you to build there." Or they might have said the dangerous cesspools were there before your children, and besides nobody asked you to have children.

ALMOST ANY COMPLAINT REGIStered might be answered and side-tracked in this way, yet that is not the "fair and honorable" way of dealing with them. These large puddle holes which have been brought to light by the recent showers are not only a source of great annoyance and inconvenience to some of our largest ratepayers, but they are also a menace to public health, and the council should try to do something to improve matters. While the council may not be legally bound to drain off private property, the engineer might work out some scheme to run the water off, at least temporarily. It is a case where a little co-operation all round, might improve matters wonderfully.

PROSPECTS BRIGHTENING.

There are many signs that Canada has turned, or at least, is turning the corner, financially, and that the period of depression is passing over.

Crop prospects are good all over the Dominion, the acreage being increased by an average of 20 per cent. and greater crops having been taken in cultivation than at probably any other period of our history.

Prices are bound to be good, possibly higher next spring than they were this year. No matter when the war ends Europe will suffer a shortage for two years. With decreased acreage of grain in the war area, there will be shortage of labor, and after the war another factor of immense importance, i.e. capital for small farming.

At the same time farmers must be on the alert this fall for a temporary set back in prices when the Dardanelles are opened. There must be large stores of grain from Russia awaiting the opening of navigation from the Black Sea and this year's crop has yet to be taken into the crop. Even with restricted grain production in Russia this year the Black Sea shipments of grain will have to be absorbed and farmers in this country would be wise to discount the effect of this grain, and not foolishly throw their wheat away because of a sudden sag in the market. The speculator will be waiting to take advantage of a possible peculiar combination of events this fall.

CHANCE FOR LIVE STOCK

Owing to the depletion of Canadian stocks of cattle and hogs last year, due to the immense demand from the States when the duty was removed, and to the shortage of feed in the West the farmer who can hold on to his cattle and breeding stock must expect to make big money in the next few years. The United States will be a heavy importer and European stocks have been depleted tremendously by the war, while the troubles in Mexico have affected the cattle situation there. In fact many events have combined to make it worth while for this country to breed more live stock, and to carefully conserve what it has. Crop prospects and shortage of food supplies for a year or two add to Canada's chances, and the very thoroughness with which certain unobtainable elements in our natural property have been weeded out will make it all the easier for a speedy return to normal conditions.

GERMANY WILL DELAY

ANSWERING A NOTE Commenting on the German reply to the American note concerning the Lusitania incident, the Manchester Guardian says: "We do not know how long the war will last, but it is clear, if Germany has her way that it will find the negotiations with the United States over the submarine blockade will drag on their interminable length. It is as though the United States offered the prospect of a prolonged continuation of points of detail, but no discovery of what has been done. The submarine war is to be carried on before American ships and citizens may take the risk."

THE REDCLIFF REVIEW,

Bravery of Men Will Shorten War

Field Marshal Sir John French, commander in chief of the British forces in France, in an address to the troops who fought in the "meat" battle of Ypres which he described as one of the most desperate fights of the war, declared that they had done much to shorten the war.

"You have fought," he said, "that because you were not attacking the enemy that you were not helping to shorten the war. On the contrary, by your splendid endurance and bravery you have done a great deal to shorten the war."

"In this second battle of Ypres the Germans tried by every means in their power to get possession of that unfortunate town. They concentrated large forces of troops and artillery and further than that they had recourse to that mean and distasteful practice hitherto unheard of in civilized warfare, namely, the use of asphyxiating gases."

MILITARY RESERVE

WILL BE ORGANIZED The militia reserves in Canada are shortly to be organized. To that end a special committee has been appointed by the minister of militia. It is estimated that throughout the Dominion at present there are 200,000 men who have served at one time or another in the militia, and have retired. There are thousands of others who ordinarily would be too old to join the service but could be of utility in any troupe at home or to bring up to the establishment the regiment whose ranks have been depleted by enlistment for overseas service.

CANADIAN LOSSES PLACED

NOW AT OVER 4,500 The roll of Canadians killed and wounded is rapidly mounting, the total now standing at 4,500. The number of Canadian killed now considerably exceeds the 1,000 mark. Reports show 969 killed, 4,123 wounded and 1,214 missing. As there are probably a couple of thousand still to be heard from, including several hundred missing, it is estimated that the total losses to the Canadian forces to the present time approximate from 5,500 to 6,000.

GERMANS SHOW THEIR

DISLIKE FOR AMERICANS The New York Herald-Tribune correspondent with the German forces on the French front says: "The ill-feeling of the Germans toward the United States is shown by the change in the treatment of the American newspaper representatives visiting the German lines. For example, I visited a battery of Howitzers, and as was my custom, passed around a handful of cigars to the artillerymen. To my astonishment the men refused them. This was a thing unheard of before, but I put it down to shyness until I learned a few hours later that they had mistaken me for an American."

LUSITANIA PASSENGERS

WERE HEAVILY INSURED English insurance companies have already paid claims amounting to $500,000 in connection with the loss of life by the sinking of the Lusitania. This represents the sum payable on about 500 lives, and many more claims are expected to be filed. The American claims probably will reach three times that amount, according to estimates, as some of the American passengers were heavily insured. No English company has thus far confirmed the report that Alfred G. Vanderbilts carried heavy insurance on his life.

GERMAN FARMERS

ARRESTED REAR CALGARY Fred Mulheiser, Matthew Matzen, George G. Galt and Peter Seppeler of the Custer district, were committed on Wednesday by Nathaniel McCarty, J.P., to the common jail at Fort Saskatchewan to await trial, charged with directly or indirectly assisting the enemy of his Majesty King George V. by contributing or expending money for the benefit of the German empire.

ONE SPOONFUL GIVES

ASTONISHING RESULT Redcliff residents are astonished at the QUICK results from the simple mixture of buckskin bark glycerine, etc., known as Adler-ka. This remedy on BOTH upper and lower bowels is as THOROUGH as a house cleaning, for that it is used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPOONFUL of Adler-ka relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, or gas, or stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it, the gases rattle and pass out. G. T. Hall, druggist.

THE GOLDEN EGG AND THE GOOSE

Old Public Applies to "Made-in-Canada" - After Merchants Often Stand in Their Own Light

The following statement has been circulated in connection with the "Made-in-Canada" movement, and is well worthy of the attention and aid of merchants to whom it is particularly addressed, but also of the average citizen. On the same day this morning away from his own town and outside of Canada when he could spend it just as advantageously in his own town for goods "Made-in-Canada."

"The Goose That Lays the Golden Eggs"

Don't kill her!

Don't do anything that will lessen her laying power!

On the contrary, feed her and nourish her so that you'll get more eggs from her! She needs your help and your good-will.

Old it ever occur to you that, out of every dollar's worth of Canadian-made goods you buy, about 50 cents goes to the Canadian workman living in some Canadian town or city, and enables him to buy about 50 cents worth more goods than his tradesman?

Did it ever occur to you that, out of every dollar's worth of Canadian-made goods you sell, about 75 cents or more disappears from Canada? That, by the buying policy of the Canadian workman, is correspondingly reduced. The wages that should be in his pocket have been paid to the foreign workman.

In 1913, over $52,000,000 of Canadian money was spent for foreign goods. Think of it—six hundred and twenty-two millions! Half of these goods could have been made in Canada, and Canadian workmen and Canadian retailers would then have been $26,000,000 or $120,000,000 better off than they are today.

This tremendous loss of Canadian money is still going on! You can help to stop some of it, and, moreover, you owe it to yourself and your own business to do all you can to check this drain on the country's resources.

Decide now, to help feed the goose! Decide now to increase the sale of Canadian-made goods! Decide now to keep more money in Canada.

A NEW IMPETUS

United States Firms Looking to Canada For Branch Factories Again

During the past couple of years the movement of American industries to Canada and the establishment of branch factories in this country has been slackened off to some extent, as compared to the rapid progress that was made in the building up of United States industries in this country in 1911 and 1912. Now the movement is being accelerated again, and, according to the Boston "Daily Trade Journal" of March 26th, the "Made-in-Canada" campaign is responsible.

After referring to the fact that the United States has been a successful business from American firms, which are now compelled to plan branches in the Dominion, the Record quoted Mr. G. W. Curtis, agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who has just made a trip to the United States, and reports that the "Made-in-Canada" movement had caused a considerable falling off in the business which the United States had hitherto done in Canada. The new war effort of 75 per cent. also served to keep out American goods.

As a result of these two factors, Mr. Curtis has recently received inquiries from American manufacturers who are planning to establish branch factories in Canada so that they may benefit by the "Made-in-Canada" movement, instead of losing by it as is now the case with their factories on the United States side of the line. This unqualified testimony from United States to the effectiveness of the "Made-in-Canada" movement, which has been given in Canada during the past few months, affords abundant evidence of the value of the publicity methods adopted. That the "Made-in-Canada" movement will gather strength in the next few months it is evident in result in an increase in the sale of Canadian goods in Canada will be the wish of all those who have a knowledge of the unemployment situation in the Dominion. Not only will new branches of American factories in Canada increase employment for Canadian mechanics, but the building and equipment of these factories will require the building and create activity in many industries subsidiary to the building trade.

Every dollar you send out of town flies away with a value that rightfully belongs to your community. Spend it at home, with your home merchant, where its value stays with you and helps to build up your interests. When you come to think of it, there are only two kinds of dollars—the "Dollar with Wings" and the "Development Dollar." The "Dollar with Wings" goes to build up the Far East, City, the Big Metropolis. The "Development Dollar" goes to build up the Home Town. It helps build up a nation of real men and women. Then, let us make the dollars we spend "Development Dollars." Home-town builders, building for us and our neighbors and our children, making our community more prosperous, more happy, more contented.

German's attitude toward Italy is growing equally as much perplexity in Italy as in Germany.

We are in receipt this week of a marked copy of last week's Review, drawing our attention to a few typographical errors on our front page. The proof reader, however, is not as clever as he thinks he is, as he overlooked as many errors as he marked.

No doubt if we cared to take the time and were anxious to stick our nose in other people's business we could find as many mistakes on our friends' business as he found in the front page of the Review.

See A. J. Nicholson for insurance of all kinds in the best companies.

TO THE REDCLIFF BOYS AT THE FRONT.

Here's to the boys of Redcliff, Who answered the Mother's call. To follow the light—to fight for right.

And liberty for all. "Remember" in France, They wait their chance, To bear the heaviest burden.

While we at home Blow off the foam To the Redcliff boys at the front.

Then here's to you boys of Redcliff, And here's to your home and gun, And here's to your charm, And your strong right arm.

To "get" the hellish "Hun."

And here's to Keal, Barnes and Scott, We know they'll deliver the goods, And here's to you men who are just as true,

Johny Jones and Woods, And here's to Bill Blisland, And also Ed. Cameron, And here's to Colla McLean, And here's to Waadford,

And likewise Crafoad, God grant they are not among the slain.

And here's to Oswald and Watson, To Henderson, Holland and Cio, And here's to Jeffries and dear old Smiley,

And here's to the sacred vow— They have firmly pledged To avoid crime and brutality;

And to firmly stand For native land, For mother and liberty.

Aid here's to the unnamed fellows, And here's to the boys on the way, Who will do the right game for that scrap of paper,

And with patience await the day When the fallen ones Of our gallant ones, Shall not cry from the ground,

And when British right, Not Prussian might, Shall be established firm and sound.

Our hearts are with you in the trenches, —Our prayers are for you on the plain; May God of Love, who watches above, Bring you all back again.

Back to the friends Who so nobly defend, With the courage the Hun cannot daunt,

And while we boast, We'll drink this toast, "To the Redcliff boys at the front."

Then here's to you boys of Redcliff, And here's to your home and gun, And here's to your charm, And your strong right arm,

To "get" the hellish Hun. —Mrs. Ed. L. Stone.

COALITION CABINET MET

FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE formation of the new coalition ministry, the new members of the cabinet, however, were unable to take their places on the ministerial benches in the house of commons owing to the few which made them ineligible to sit until they were re-elected by their various constituents.

This situation, however, was speedily remedied, for the house of commons passed in all its stages a bill removing this disability for the period of the war.
